

Claims

- [c1] What is claimed is:
air and bus charter management system comprising:
having a database;
having said database contain data about a traveler to and from a casino; and allowing said data to be accessed by users of the system.
- [c2] A charter management system of claim 1 further comprising having said system being accessible by a user through the Internet.
- [c3] A charter management system of claim 1 further comprising having said data being historic data of said traveler.
- [c4] A charter management system of claim 3 further comprising having said historic data being the travel history, seat assignments, companions of said traveler.
- [c5] A charter management system of claim 6 further comprising having said other database systems being used to form a charter.
- [c6] A charter management system of claim 1 further comprising having said system contacting said gaming player.

- [c7] A charter management system of claim 8 further comprising where said traveler is contacted based on a selection criteria.
- [c8] A customer relationship management system of claim 9 further comprising where said selection criteria is based on the information contained in said database.
- [c9] A charter management system of claim 1 further comprising where said system compares said data against a rule set.
- [c10] A charter management system of claim 11 further comprising where said system will notify if a rule set is broken.
- [c11] A charter management system of claim 1 further comprising where said system has a communication means for players and users to contact each other.
- [c12] A charter management system of claim 8 further comprising where said notification is an E-mail.
- [c13] A charter management system of claim 8 further comprising where said notification is mailing.

- [c14] A charter management system of claim 8 further comprising where said notification is telephonic.
- [c15] A charter management system of claim 6 further comprising where said other databases are reservations systems databases.
- [c16] A charter management system of claim 1 further comprising having said users searching bases on qualifying criteria.
- [c17] A charter management system of claim 8 further comprising having said users searching for a plurality of travelers based on their travel information.
- [c18] A charter management system of claim 8 further comprising having said users searching for a plurality of travelers based on their travel history.